What's Happening at ECLC

Joey S. happily took on the task of helping Mr. Watson cut out letters for a winter-themed bulletin board.

Upcoming Dates

December 18—Virtual Holiday Show @ 2:00 p.m.
and Ugly Sweater Day

December 21-31—Holiday Recess

Room 103 has been using a picture storyboard to help them recount the events and timeline of The Orphan of Ellis Island by Elvira Woodruff. The class traveled back in time to the year 1908 to learn how immigrants from Italy made their way to America and landed on Ellis Island before beginning their new lives in America.

Curriculum in the News

Room 205 has really gotten swept up with the task of keeping their classroom clean!

Room 102 has created snowflakes for their December themed bulletin board. They had fun learning about the seven different principal types of snowflakes: plates, stellar crystals, columns, needles, spatial dendrites, capped columns, and irregular forms. The students are looking forward to seeing “real” snow in the next few weeks!

Curriculum in the News

The students in Ms. Johnson's class became scientists when they combined baking soda and vinegar and added it to rice. The chemical reaction caused the rice to dance! This was a fun follow-up lesson from a current events article about the "TikTok" star Charli D'Amelio, who promotes positive messages through her dance videos.

It's beginning to look a lot like...winter!

🎄 'Tis the Season to Give Back 🎄

American Nursery in Fair Lawn will donate 10% of all their Christmas trees sold to Jason Leider and his brother Justin's medical trust. All you have to do is mention Jason and Justin. And don't forget to grab a picture at their photo spot.

Trees For Treatment

American Nursery will donate 10% of all Christmas trees sold to Let them be little x2 when you mention Jason and Justin's Journey.

Lets bring back the real meaning of Christmas.
