Dear Parents,

Happy New Year! We hope everyone had a wonderful vacation and enjoyed spending time with family and friends. We would like to express our sincere thanks to all of you for the contributions to the Holiday Gift for our staff and for the PTO for organizing this as well. It is truly appreciated by all!

Right before we left on winter break, we had our first win of the season for the basketball team. The ECLC Tigers played the Sheppard School and won 41-36! It was a very exciting game!

The Upper School students also had their holiday dance before break. It was great time! Thank you to Jillian Vos at Golden Note Entertainment for donating the photo booth to make the dance extra special and fun!

As many of you may have heard, Ms. Chedid, one of our Speech Therapists was on Wheel of Fortune over break. Here is the link if you would like to watch Ms. Chedid on Wheel of Fortune!

Attached is the list of ECLC service week items for collection. Please send in any items that you might be able to donate! Also, collection has begun for the annual rummage sale so please feel free to send in any items you might have!

Reminders:

*Open House Tour Dates if you know of anyone interested in ECLC: Upper School will be on 1/8 at 10 am and Lower School will be 1/10 at 10 am.

*Thursday, January 17th there will be an ECLC basketball game vs Chatham High school. The game will be at Chatham High school beginning at 7:00. Doors will open at 6:00.

*School will be closed on Monday, January 21st in observance of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Day.

*Save the Date! Next Parent Workshop is on February 12th from 11:15 am – 12:15 pm. This day is also an early dismissal for students. The topic is “What happens after ECLC?” and is presented by Mary Griggs, Director of CPS.

Have a great weekend!

Sincerely,
