Dear Parents,

December 7, 2018

It is hard to believe that it is already December! Where did the time go? Here at ECLC we had had a very busy week. Our students have been busy preparing for our Holiday Concert which is next Friday, December 14th at 12:30. Please join us if you can. As always, there will be a DVD of the show for you to purchase. SKIL will have their Holiday sale at this time as well.

It was great seeing so many of you at Parent Teacher Conferences. If you were unable to make it, please reach out to your child's Homeroom teacher at any time. Communication is so important for your child's development.

We also had our first Basketball game of the season on Wednesday and we won! Go tigers!! In addition to this event, some of our Upper School students participated in Learn Unified. This was the first Learn Unified event of the year. On a monthly basis, students will be going to Chatham High School and engaging in a high school class. At this first event, the students reconnected with the high school students and enjoyed lunch with them. We look forward to continuing this throughout the year!

There were several Community Based Trips this week. Some included TD Bank, Shop Rite, Frelinghuysen Arboretum to see the Gingerbread House display and Livingston Mall to name a few! Another trip was to the newly opened Sorriso Kitchen restaurant right here on Main Street in Chatham. The Bellas Family has officially opened their doors! Plan on stopping in for breakfast or lunch when you are at ECLC. We look forward to begin spending time at Sorriso on Mondays in the new year. For those of you who may have not heard yet, the restaurant will be closing on Mondays and ECLC students will be utilizing the space to learn all about working in a restaurant! So stop by Sorriso!

Our SGA will be holding their first Toys for Tots toy drive. Please see the attached flier and support them if you can!

Upcoming Events here at ECLC:

- The Awards Assembly is this Tuesday, December 11th. Lower School awards are at 1:00 in the Cafeteria, CORE awards are at 1:00 in the auditorium and WEC/TES are at 1:45 in the auditorium.
- The Holiday show is next Friday, December 14th at 12:30. Please join us if you can!
- The last day of school before vacation is Thursday, December 20th. This is a full day. There is no school on Friday, December 21st. School will reopen on Wednesday, January 2, 2019.

Happy Hanukkah to all our families celebrating this week. We hope everyone has a wonderful weekend. We look forward to seeing everyone on Monday!

Sincerely,
